

Advancing Women Scholarships

The Ethnic Communities Council of Queensland (ECCQ) is the peak body for Queensland's multicultural communities. ECCQ works with and represent the needs and goals of multicultural communities to promote a socially cohesive, equitable, respectful and multicultural Queensland.

About the scholarships: ECCQ has partnered with leaders, professionals, and business to develop two scholarship opportunities for culturally diverse women residing in Queensland. These scholarships recognise the contribution of women to making our society more equitable and inclusive.

The scholarships aim to provide opportunities for culturally and linguistically diverse women to advance in their leadership and chosen profession by providing mentors, financial aid and educational assistance.

Scholarship applications open 17 August 2023 and will remain open for 6 weeks. Applications close at 11:59pm Thursday 23 November.

The scholarship winners will be announced at ECCQ's International Women's Day Event in March 2024.

For any questions regarding the scholarship, including eligibility, the application process and media enquiries email scholarship@eccq.com.au

Proudly sponsored by

www.eccq.com.au/scholarship

Scholarship Guidelines

Application process: Scholarship applications open 17 August 2023 and will remain open for 6 weeks. Applications close at 11:59pm Thursday 23 November.

Scholarship applications must be submitted through an online form, with required evidence emailed to scholarship@eccq.com.au. Applications submitted through any other means will not be accepted.

Scholarship applications forms can be found at eccq.com.au/scholarship

A person may only apply for one scholarship category. Ensure that the guidelines and specifics of each scholarship are read carefully to ensure that the application is accepted.

General eligibility: All applicants must be female and culturally linguistically diverse and reside in Queensland. Definitions used for Culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) is as follows:

Culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) is a broad term used to describe a person who may natively speak a language other than English and/or identify with an ethnic background, nationality, cultural traditions or religion that is different to the majority community of Australia.

For any questions regarding the scholarship, including eligibility and the application process email scholarship@eccq.com.au

Contact us

P - (07) 3844 9166

E - scholarship@eccq.com.au

W - www.eccq.com.au/scholarship

Scan for more information and application forms